

Special Behind the Scenes Tour of the California Academy of Sciences

- Thursday, February 21, 2019 @ 1pm
- Golden Gate Park, 55 Music Concourse Dr, SF

Please join us for a private behind the scenes tour with an emphasis on the Botanical/Herbarium Collections. The California Academy of Sciences' herbarium is the largest collection of vascular plants in the western U.S. and the sixth-largest collection in the country.

- Cost (Includes 15% discount): Adult General (non Academy member)--$30.56 + Admission + Behind the Scenes tour $21.21 =Total cost: $51.77
- Academy Members – Free Admission + 21.21 special tour

RSVP to Ruth Cox [ruthcox.sfsu@gmail.com] by Jan. 5, 2019. Please use bottom portion of this flyer to submit payment & indicate whether you are an Academy member. Please make check out to NCalSBA.

- Good news – each Behind-the-Scenes Tour guest receives reserved planetarium show seats to any show before or after the tour as well as express entrance to the Rainforest of the World exhibit. Academy open until 5pm. Also on now is Giants of Land and Sea, a new exhibit. Explore the tallest trees, mightiest mammals, and giant natural forces that make Northern California like nowhere else in the world.
 - We recommend that you wear comfortable shoes as this is a 1 hour walking tour. Lunch: cafeteria or bag lunch; Parking available on roadside or parking garage.
 - Parking can be challenging, and we recommend public transit whenever possible. For more information about getting here, please visit http://www.calacademy.org/visit/getting_here/
