

Drawing Roses in Colored Pencil with Nina Antze

Wed., May 8th - Fri., May 10th, 2019

The Bishop's Ranch in historic Healdsburg, California

May is high time for roses in Sonoma Country.

Join us for two days and two nights of warmth and relaxation, drawing and painting beautiful roses and other spring flowers at The Bishop's Ranch in Healdsburg. Colored Pencils are a fun, safe and portable and meditative way to express oneself artistically. We will explore a variety of colored pencil techniques and learn how to blend, burnish and create new colors while incorporating the techniques of botanical drawing. We will also play with ways to incorporate and work with watercolor pencils and do some journaling outside.

All levels welcome.

Workshop is limited to 12 participants. Accommodations and meals during your stay are all inclusive. Non-alcoholic beverages are included with meals.

About the Artist:

Nina Antze is a California botanical artist and quiltmaker. She has a degree in Fine Art and a Certificate in Botanical Illustration from the New York Botanical Gardens and has recently studied with Sarah Simblet at the Ruskin School of Art at Oxford.

Nina teaches Colored Pencil classes in the Botanical Certificate Program at Filoli Gardens, at the Sebastopol Center for the Arts, Santa Rosa Junior College, the San Francisco Botanical Gardens, Point Reyes, and around the Bay Area.

She works in colored pencil, watercolor pencil and fabric. Her botanicals can be viewed at her web site, www.pcquilt.com

About The Bishop's Ranch

www.bishopsranch.org

The Bishop's Ranch is a retreat and conference center nestled among the forests, farms and vineyards of Sonoma County, outside the town of Healdsburg. We are a unique gathering place for groups and individuals, where details are tended to and distractions of day to day life are removed. High quality meals are lovingly prepared and served by a talented kitchen staff who utilize the freshest ingredients possible. Vegetarian and special diets can be accommodated. Guests dine buffet style in a large dining room that offers breathtaking views of Mt. St. Helena and the Russian River Valley.

Accommodations:

Participants will stay in double bedrooms in the Kay Qvale Ranch House, a gracious two story Spanish-style ranch house built in 1930. Each bedroom has a full bathroom; male participants can also be accommodated by special arrangement. The Ranch House also has sitting areas and rooms, a full kitchen for light use, and a beautiful sundeck on the second-floor balcony. The Workshop coordinator will contact each participant to arrange for specific room assignments.
